

Prepared Slides

1. Read the microscope use procedures.
2. There are several prepared slides at this station. Observe FOUR different slides under the microscope.
3. Draw and color what you observe.
4. Write a short description of your observations.
5. Label the magnification you used to make the observations.

When you are finished, put the slides away, and turn off the microscope correctly.

Microscope Observations